FLORIDA SOUTHWESTERN COLLEGIATE HIGH SCHOOL

2024-2025 SCHOOL PROFILE

Critical Thinking | Communication | Collaboration

SCHOOL & COMMUNITY

Florida SouthWestern Collegiate High School-Lee (FSWC-Lee), formerly known as Edison Collegiate High School, opened its doors to students in the fall of 2010 on the Florida SouthWestern State College Lee County campus in Fort Myers, Florida. As a fully accredited charter school in the State of Florida, FSWC-Lee serves students in grades 9-12 drawn from Lee County through an open enrollment policy. Currently there are 417 students. The current student population is 57% female and 43% male. Approximately 47% of students indicated their ethnicity is white, 33% Hispanic/Latino, 9% black, 6% Asian Pacific, 1% American Indian, and 4% multi-racial. 27% of students receive free or reduced lunch.

The purpose of FSWC-Lee is to provide a quality academic experience for high school students seeking the challenge of high academic standards, rigorous curricula, and college-level study at a small high school, which promotes a caring environment focusing on critical thinking, communication, and collaboration for each individual. The four-year curriculum provides the opportunity for students to complete a high school diploma and an Associate in Arts degree simultaneously.
